

Says Governor Trying to Pressure Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Pulaski Rep. J.H. Cottrell, instigator of a suit challenging the constitutionality of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' omnibus Construction law, has charged that Faubus is trying to pressure the courts through public statements.

Cottrell's blast followed an apparent compromise in the controversy offered by Faubus.

The Pulaski representative challenged Faubus to meet him in court today to help speed up a decision on the suit. Faubus did not comment.

Saturday Faubus offered to use his emergency funds for the colony if Cottrell will remove the colony from his suit.

But Cottrell declared: "All he (Faubus) has to do is sign a simple proclamation allocating money to the Children's Colony and to others. This he can do without consulting the courts or me."

The current furor centers around the $16 million construction measure which is a companion to Faubus' $60 million state construction program.

The act provides money for operating two new cottages at the colony which were opened March 10 with 35 children.

At least 32 separate appropriations are also provided for by the smaller measure which is the crux of the suit. Cottrell's suit points out the state Construction provides that all appropriations, except those for the courts, must come through separate legislation.

On Thursday the governor ordered a halt to all state construction because of the suit. This, he said, would result in 40 children being discharged from the colony.

In a telegram to Pulaski Rep. Sterling Cockrell Jr. Faubus said he would use the emergency funds only if the $50,000 in the omnibus bill proved insufficient for the colony. He said such use of the emergency funds would be unprecedented.

Since the filing of Cottrell's suit, several state agencies have filed intervention supporting the omnibus bill. Cottrell charged the governor is "browbeating state agencies" to intervene as an "effort to create an emotional atmosphere."

And, Cottrell remarked, Faubus has used emergency funds several times for the Girls Training School. "It is my belief that retarded children are as deserving as wayward girls," he said.

Prior to Cottrell's suit, the Arkansas Education Association had planned to file a similar suit but dropped it when Cottrell filed. The AEA, which is also opposed to the $60 million bond issue, said it would support a smaller bond issue of around $20 million.

Faubus wondered how Forrest Razzell, executive secretary of the AEA could oppose the omnibus bill on constitutional ground if he could support another such bill if it were more conservative.

Faubus indicated he would not call the Legislature to special session to have the omnibus funds appropriated in separate measures. But he said he would call such a session if the bond issue fails in a special election.

He has not set a date for the bond vote.

Pair of Local Swans Eye the Photographer

Telephoto by Hope Star
MRS. FREEDA GREENAN, HEAD OF CORN BELT Hatcheries, bought a pair of swans and installed them recently on a miniature lake at her residence in Pinecrest here. The Star's editor photographed them Sunday afternoon.

THE BIG DEVIL ON THE LEFT IS THE GANDER. The reason the editor knows is because he hissed at the pair to get them to strike a pose — and the gander promptly hissed back, elevated his 10-foot wingspread and threatened to come ashore. All swans by tradition are mean, and, being several times larger than the largest goose, they could give man or beast a bad time at close range.

SIZING UP THE SITUATION ON AN EARLIER VISIT TO the lake the editor saw the gander go ashore after a birdie, who fortunately escaped. Giving thought to the matter the editor decided to make the picture at a safe distance — with the newspaper's big 360mm. telephoto lens. That gave him a closeup from a good 50 feet away.

Polio Vaccine Available to Public

The Local Polio Chapter has purchased Salk vaccine shots which will be given free to persons who can't afford to pay for them. The shots are primarily for preschool children.

Purchase of this vaccine was made possible through the polio campaign, according to Mrs. Lura Mae Impson, drive chairman. Mrs. Inez Turner, County Health Nurse, will administer shots free in needy cases. Mrs. Impson said, and urged everyone to get shots as soon as possible.

Dr. Salk recommended that shots be administered a month apart for the first two and the third one seven months from the second. Two shots means 65 per cent immunity and the third, actually all that's necessary now with improved vaccine, means nearly 100 per cent immunity.

Polio is now primarily a disease of unvaccinated babies, unvaccinated school children and adults.

Life or Death Pondered in Finch Case

By BOB BARNES

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Death in the gas chamber? Life imprisonment?

Those grim alternatives faced Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 43, and Carole Tregoff, 24, today. Ahead lay perhaps their biggest ordeal in three murder trials: Awaiting a jury's decree of their penalty for murdering Finch's beautiful socialite wife, Barbara Jean, 36.

The jury decided their guilt a week ago. Its only remaining choices today are death or life for either or both.

The 10 men and 2 women in four days convicted the once rich suburban physician of first-degree murder, his formerly trim mistress of second-degree murder — and both of conspiracy to commit murder. The conspiracy and first-degree convictions both are capital offenses; second-degree murder carries a penalty of five years to life.

Two predominantly woman juries had each tried vainly for weeks to agree on a verdict in earlier trials.

Prosecutors said the playboy doctor and red-haired divorcee plotted to kill Mrs. Finch so they could wed without splitting Finch's estate with her.

Finch admitted holding the pistol when he shot his estranged wife in the back during a wild struggle outside their West Covina home late July 18, 1959. He called it an accident.

Finch admitted, too, that he and Carole tried to hire jailbird Jack Cody. But the doctor insisted Cody was simply to get divorce evidence. Cody claimed he was hired as a killer.

Red China Can Turn Laos Into Another Korea

By PETER ARNETT

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Red China today held a threat over the West to turn Laos into another Korea if the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization sends troops into the strife-torn Indochina kingdom.

Peiping's Foreign Minister Chen Yi, winding up a visit to Indonesia, told newsmen that if SEATO sends troops into Laos, "then China will also send troops."

Marshall Chen Yi, who led the Chinese Communist 3rd Army into Korea in 1950 before becoming foreign minister, alluded to SEATO's warning that it was prepared to take "appropriate action" to prevent an armed Communist takeover of Laos.

The foreign minister said Peiping's solution to the fighting between pro-Western and pro-Communist forces in Laos is to "let the Laotian people settle their differences themselves and withdraw all foreign intervention. This would insure peace and neutrality in the country."

Chen Yi left before newsmen got a chance to question him about Moscow's latest proposals on Laos. But Peiping has declared a willingness to participate in the proposed 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos.

A communique on Chen Yi's talks with Indonesian President Sukarno contended that the United Nations efforts to solve world problems would be seriously weakened unless Peiping is admitted to membership in the international organization.

On Laos and the Congo, the two leaders declared: "All foreign intervention in all its forms and manifestations in these two countries should be discontinued."

The situation in Laos was described Sunday by Malayan Prime Minister Abdul Rahman as "still extremely serious." He pointed out the vagueness of the Soviet reply to the British proposal about the timing of a ceasefire in the jungle kingdom.

Leaving Britain after a month-long visit, the Malayan leader suggested that the Soviets were hedging about ending the fighting.

The neutralist Asian prime minister said "the fault in Laos lies on both sides, on the Western and the Communist bloc. The situation is still dangerous despite the Russian reply to the British peace plan. My only prayer is that the Americans won't do anything to worsen it."

Radio Moscow said in a German-language broadcast Sunday night that "the way to a peaceful settlement in Laos may be regarded as opened."

Fire Destroys Negro Home

Sunrise Service Well Attended

An estimated 250 to 300 persons attended the annual Sunrise Easter Services yesterday, according to G. M. Petry, president of the sponsoring Hope Ministerial Alliance.

A group of laymen from various churches with Roy Anderson as chairman, arranged details of the program. One of the projects of the Alliance is aiding transient traffic through Hope in cooperation with the Salvation Army.

An offering was taken for this purpose along with other needs of the Alliance and response was good with contributions in excess of $104. The Alliance expressed appreciation to everyone for making the service a success and especially to laymen who helped with the program.

UN Overrides Objection of Russia

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly today overrode bitter Soviet opposition and approved a temporary extension of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld's Congo spending powers.

The vote on the stopgap resolution was 51-10 with 22 abstentions. The negative votes were cast by the Soviet bloc and Mali.

Soviet Delegate A. A. Roschin challenged the legality of the assembly's action. He said the United Nations is carrying out the Congo operation in the interest of the colonial powers and is pushing itself into bankruptcy by actions which violate the U.N. charter.

"From top to bottom," Roschin said, "the operation has been guided by the colonial powers."

Michigan to Vote on Aid to Industry

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan voted today on a proposal for the state to grant up to $5 million in credit to aid community industrial development—a plan first broached after it was announced earlier this year that the Norge Division of Borg-Warner would move from Muskegon to Fort Smith, Ark.

Also on the ballot was a proposal for a state constitutional convention.

The biennial spring election usually attracts only mild interest, but indications today were that voters might turn out in record numbers.

State Elections Director Robert M. Montgomery predicted that as many as 1.5 million persons might vote before the polls close compared with the 1959 total of 1.2 million.

A controversy over Michigan's 53-year-old constitution kindled strong feelings among backers and opponents of a ballot proposal to hold a constitutional convention to dermize the 21,000-word document.

Voters also decide whether the state should be allowed to credit up to $5 million with legislative approval to aid public corporations in financing industrial development projects.

This would be an effort both to preserve Michigan industry and to attract new industry.

Kennedy Will Visit DeGaulle Late in May

PALESTINE, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy will fly to Paris May 31 for three days of talks with French President Charles de Gaulle.

Announcing this today, the President's vacation headquarters said he will be accompanied by his wife, Jacqueline.

In reply to questions, White House press secretary Pierre Salinger told a news conference that at this time he knows of no plans for Kennedy to visit other European capitals in connection with the Paris trip.

"The Paris visit will be Kennedy's first trip abroad as president. He will go to Canada in advance of going to France."

Plans for a trip to Ottawa to address the Canadian Parliament were announced earlier. Indications now are that Kennedy will go to Ottawa perhaps two weeks before visiting Paris.

Kennedy plans to leave for Paris by jet plane probably on the night of May 30. He will leave Washington May 29 to attend a "Salute to Kennedy" dinner in Boston marking his 44th birthday, then go on to New York the next day for a dinner being given to raise funds to fight cancer.

PARIS (AP) — The French government officially announced today that President John F. Kennedy would visit France May 31 until June 2 to meet with President Charles de Gaulle.

A communique issued in the name of De Gaulle said: "Mr. John Kennedy, President of the United States of America, will visit General De Gaulle, in Paris, next May 31 to June 2. 'The President will be accompanied by Mrs. Kennedy.'"

Millwood Breakfast 7:30 Tuesday

Although goals were not quite reached, everyone worked hard. The attendance Easter Sunday was 76, better than last year's 73. This offering was in cooperation with the entire Church of the Nazarene whose goal in the offering was $14 million.

CHAPTER XXVI

She studied him for a grave moment. "Yes," she nodded, "you really mean it. But in a strictly personal way. For you are a long way off—a very long way—on a high hill, to sleep for anyone else to climb."

"You are shrewder than you appear," Waddell observed. "The things you speak of are a penalty of my trade."

She moved out of the stable door into the slanting afternoon sunshine, speaking in an absent way, as though she might be uttering her thoughts aloud.

"I've been curious from the first and I had to find out. Now I understand," she turned and looked at him. "I'm rather sorry for you, Chris Waddell. Because it must be very, very lonely, up on that hill."

He stood, puzzled, unable to think of an answer. And she went away, to disappear beyond the cypress cottage.

It was nearing sundown when Buff, youngest of the three Spooners, entered Jack Miller's store. Just inside the door he paused, looking around. In here the first shadows of approaching sundown were beginning to build. Buff's narrow, animal-like observation roved the store quickly, coming to rest on Norma Vespasian, where she leaned over some paper work at the far end of the counter. The impact of Buff's fixed stare made her look up. Immediately she knew the feeling of affront.

This was as it had been on several previous occasions when she chanced to find herself under the regard of this lank, dark-faced young Ute Street tough. Always there was an avidness in his glance, a certain air to turn her cold.

Buff Spooner's brief smile was as thinly vicious as a wolf's snarl. In his loutish self-confidence he saw Norma's surging color not as the hot flame of anger and repulsion, but as a self-conscious, coquettish blush. And he made mental note accordingly.

He moved up to the counter and faced Spence Munger across it. He laid down some coins and called for a caddy of tobacco. Then he went away, moving slowly while he looked again in Norma's direction.

When Buff was finally gone, Spence Munger stood for a considerable interval, staring straight ahead and running the tip of his tongue back and forth across his lips, as if finding them dry and parched.

Buff Spooner turned into Ute Street and there lost himself for a time. In the first full run of blue sundown shadows he circled about town to come in at the far north corner of the Vespasian cottage, and there set himself to wait.

It was just short of full dark when Norma Vespasian left the store for home and supper. Members of anger over the Buff Spooner incident still smoldered. Then there was some puzzlement over an abrupt change in manner by Spence Munger. Before Buff Spooner's appearance, Spence had been his usual self about the store, a minor, threadbare personality forever trying by word and attitude to increase his size in the eyes of others. But after Buff Spooner had gone, Spence became a shrunken soul, cloaked by a look of harried worry.

Beyond these things, however, and more than balancing their effect, was the memory of her visit earlier in the day with Chris Waddell. A chance meeting on the Heron Creek trail with a man she had seen before as a distant, reserved, taciturn servant of the law, had evolved into a companionship as thoroughly pleasant as it was surprising.

Equally surprising, now that she considered it, was her own willingness to meet that companionship half way, and the real pleasure she had found in it.

These were her thoughts as she moved through the alley past the Mill House and across the sinter-val beyond to the modest little dwelling she called home. And as she came up to the door of this, there abruptly beside her, was Buff Spooner. His words struck at her, thin and leering.

"You'll be invitin' me in, of course!"

Norma Vespasian had moved with her father along a rough and ready frontier of mining camps, a life that had early taught her a realistic self-reliance. When she rode, a revolver rode with her in one of her saddle bags. But here in town she carried no defensive weapons save native courage and a high pride that could flay and scorn.

"Get out of here!" she flared. The tone lashed scorn and contempt. Buff Spooner reacted to it as he might have to the bite of a real lash. He snarled and caught at her.

She tried to fight him off, to break by him and get into the house, but she had no luck. She could not pull away. For the first time in her life she knew fear. It broke from her lips in a desperate cry.

Four were killed in traffic accidents and two drowned.

One person died by shooting and one in a fall from a train. James Johnson, 31, Negro of College Station, was fatally shot Saturday night and Estella Murry, 35, told officers she shot him after he stabbed her in the back seven times with an ice pick. She was hospitalized.

Anti-Bomb Group Masses in London

LONDON (AP) — About 40,000 "ban the bomb" demonstrators assembled in a drizzle in the heart of London today for a mass rally climaxed a four-day march protesting nuclear weapons.

"We stand for sanity in a mad world," Earl Bertrand Russell, 88, philosopher and dean of the nuclear disarmament movement, told the cheering crowd. "The possibility of complete disaster remains deadly and immediate. Nuclear war in the near future is probable unless East and Western governments change their policies."

He spoke from in front of Nelson's monument in Trafalgar Square after two columns of demonstrators had limped in soggy after treks through the English countryside.

Hundreds of policemen circulated among the banner-waving and singing demonstrators packing the square.

Representatives from 30 foreign countries, who had marched under the banners of their lands, received a rousing cheer from the crowd packed around the monument.

Organizers had hoped for a turnout exceeding the 70,000 who jammed the square last year at the end of the annual Easter march from the gates of Britain's nuclear weapons arsenal at Aldermaston, 54 miles southwest of London. But bad weather kept many away. Marchers from Aldermaston and from a U.S. base at Wethersfield converged at the square.

A roar of applause went up as the 450-strong West German contingent strode into the square. There was another cheer for a lone Japanese.

Several other Japanese had intended to march but R. A. Butler, Britain's deputy prime minister, refused to grant them entry visas.

CATHOLIC HITS LAW

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Indiana University Press has published a new book, "Life, Death and the Law," in which the author, Norman St. John-Stevens, a Roman Catholic and British lawyer, says anti-birth control laws are useless, and he criticizes catholic support of them.

Inarticulate Father at Odds With Son

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:
We have a 16-year-old boy, a junior in high school, not perfect but good. He and his father don't see eye to eye.

We caught him in a few lies — one was serious.

He wants a car. We tell him that when he gets a job and can pay for the upkeep and insurance, he may have one.

A month ago my husband came home with a car for the boy to try out. It cost too much so they took it back. The dealer had another car for them to try but my husband said no. A few days later our boy secretly arranged to try the other car. We wouldn't let our boy keep it.

He has a driver's license and is included in our insurance. But his father won't trust him with our car. Every time we let him, he got home late. On Sunday he went rabbit-hunting with a boy friend. He was to be back for church, but didn't come in till 10:30 that night. The boy friend's father said the boys had been there earlier with a couple of girls. The night before our boy had been out till midnight with one of the girls. What can I do to help my husband and son first catch other? Things seem to be getting worse. —In-between

Dear In-Between: Your teen-ager is suffering from adolescence. He is at once struggling to assert his independence; hence the clashes with his father; and at the same time grapple with disturbing sexual impulses. His father is probably as inarticulate as he. Understanding companionship is the only cure for mistrust. But without the communication of ideas, the exchange of experience es, or the warmth of a friendly word, there can be no companionship.

Has your husband ever discussed sex with your son? If not, he should. How much does he know about the boy's studies or friends? How about the girls? Bring them into the open, invite them to a meal. Discuss them with the boy.

If your husband, as well as you, make it your pleasure — not duty — to be interested in the boy, then the first step in mutual trust will have been taken. As for the car, no teen-ager should have one unless he has earned it, can feel the upkeep and is mature enough to put the brakes on speed and sex.

Dear Helen: A year ago my marriage went on the rocks for a time. There was another woman. Out of this romance there is now a child. How can I be sure my husband doesn't love this woman? He refuses to mention her name. There are times when I think I'll go crazy thinking about her. I love my husband and don't want to share him with anybody. How do I know if he is only staying with me for the sake of the children? —Please Help

Dear Please Help: It could be that jealousy sent your husband into the arms of the other woman since your letter plainly indicates you are still its victim. If you would keep your husband, conquer this ugly thing. If you truly love your husband, you would put his happiness first. Once you are selfless enough to do that, he will never leave you. Read my leaflet, "Jealousy."

Miss Mary Jo Fincher became the bride of Mr. Jay Curtis in a ceremony performed at 4:00 p.m. March 4th in the First Baptist church of Hope. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fincher of Hope and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Curtis of Little Rock. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. John H. McClanahan, Mr. Gilbert Thomas sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Henry Spraggins, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of champagne lace with a jeweled neckline. The dress was fashioned of a fitted waist line with the skirt falling into a chapel train. The bride's finger-tip long veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and teardrops forming orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Ralph Carrington of Austin, Texas served as maid of honor and Miss Patsy Long of Little Rock, as maid of honor. Their dresses were of aqua tulle covered with white lace with a tulle overskirt. They carried cascade bouquets of pink roses.

Mr. David M. Phelps of Little Rock served as best man and Mr. Bob Ayers of Little Rock and Mr. Jack Kirkwood of Pine Bluff as groomsmen. Candelights were Michael Chambliss, cousin of the bride, and Michael Franks.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the Fincher home. The table held a centerpiece of white dutch iris, and was covered with a linen cloth. Serving were Misses Sue Smith, Little Rock, Jean McClendon of Little Rock and Mrs. H. B. Graham of Prescott. In charge of the bride's book was Mrs. Jimmy Fincher of Magnolia.

For going away the bride chose a navy linen suit with navy accessories. She pinned the orchid from her bouquet at her shoulder. After a brief wedding trip the couple will be at home in Little Rock.

the Diamond. A basket of mixed spring flowers centered the serving table in the Rose Room.

Governor Sees
Growth of Atheism

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said in a non-denominational Easter sunrise service Sunday that atheism is growing among American college students, and parents must take it upon themselves to instill faith in God in their children.

Faubus spoke to a group of 900 at the annual Searcy Easter observance, which has been held each year since 1928. About 10 Negroes sat alone in the 75-seat balcony of the Searcy High School auditorium. The white worshippers

Laos Situation
at a Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON — Officials say United States to insist on effective cease-fire in Laos before entering any international conference on future of Laos.

LONDON—British foreign secretary, leaving for Washington to help draft Western reply to Soviet note on Laos, says Soviet proposals are favorable so far but clarification needed.

MOSCOW — British ambassador confers with Soviet officials on plans for two countries to issue joint cease-fire appeal. Major issue is what would happen if cease-fire not effective by start of proposed Laotian conference.

JAKARTA — Red Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi warns Peking will send troops into Laos if Southeast Asia Treaty Organization sends in its forces.

VIENTIANE—Civil war returns to twilight stage with no serious fighting reported. Government appears to concede military initiative to Communists and be depending on internationally arranged cease-fire.

U.S. production has jumped from about 14 million bushels in 1930 to 550 million in 1960.

In mid-March growers were receiving an average of $2.68 a bushel for soybeans, or 83 cents above the government support rate.

In discussing the soybean outlook, the department had this to say in the report:

"Soybean prices this season have displayed the greatest seasonal variation since the 1955-56 marketing year when they rose from $2.06 per bushel in November to a peak of $2.93 in May... the favorable market prices of soybeans at planting time along with the higher 1961 support price of $2.30 a bushel are the dominant factors that are encouraging farmers to expand their soybean acreage this year."

Production of soybeans has been growing by leaps and bounds during the past 30 years—and without developing oversupply problems that have plagued many crops making much less sensational gains in production.

A sharp expansion this year appears to be in the works—thanks to presently prevailing favorable prices and a government guarantee to support prices of the 1961 crop 45 cents a bushel above last year's guarantee of $1.85.

In a report issued today on the fats and oils situation, the Agriculture Department said prices are expected to continue strong during the spring and summer.

The soybean is an important source of vegetable oil used for food and industrial purposes and of meal for livestock feed of high protein content.

A big factor in the strong price for the crop is

AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

End of Audit Report.

WHAT IS ABC?

The Audit Bureau of Circulations, Chicago, by its own definition is: "A co-operative association of advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers for the verification of circulation of newspaper and periodical members in the United States and Canada."

It is controlled by those who buy advertising (manufacturing, merchandising and service companies, and their agencies) rather than those who sell advertising (newspapers and magazines).

COST OF ADVERTISING

Pick up an invoice for newspaper advertising and you will find that you are billed for so many column-inches at so much per inch. That's how it is billed — but that isn't how it is sold.

The price of an inch of advertising is meaningless unless you know what the paper's circulation is. When you know that you know the cost.

The cost of advertising is the cost per inch per thousand circulation. That's the great yardstick by which advertising is bought and sold from coast to coast. The national advertisers call it "the milline" — the cost per line (1/14th of an inch) per million circulation.

Now you know why ABC audits are important. They verify circulation — the factor which is combined with the publisher's charge per inch to establish the advertising cost yardstick.

IT'S CHEAP TODAY

Hope Star's local advertising costs about the same today as in 1929. The rate-per-inch is higher, it is true — but circulation also has increased. Here is the comparison:

	1929	1961
Local "open" rate per inch per thousand	20c	25.6c

And that's a performance we feel deserves a page advertisement all its own.

Barber and Chandler Happy Pair

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — Jerry Barber and Chandler Harper, a pair of pappy golfers bound for the Masters Tournament opening Thursday at Augusta, Ga., mastered the youngsters here Sunday.

They survived a gruelling 36-hole final day in a tie for first place in the 54-hole $1,000 Azalea tourney and then played a sudden-death extra hole. Barber won with a par four. They had tied at 213, three under par.

The victory was worth $1,206 to the 137-pound, 5-7 veteran from Los Angeles, who will be 45 this month. Harper, who is 47, pocketed $1,006.

On the extra hole Barber unfurled a great drive, got on in two, 35 feet from the pin and made his par, the last putt from 4 1/2 feet. Barber missed the green to the left with his second, chipped up eight feet short and missed his putt.

George Knudson, Canadian pro from Toronto, closed with 68 for a 215 total. He tied with Dey Finsterwald, first day leader from Jupiter, Fla., and Tom Nieport, defending champion from Brounville, N.Y., each won $806.

Celtics Jump on Hawks to Win Opener

By BOB HOOBING
BOSTON (AP) — Defense and Bill Russell are the reasons the Boston Celtics have the jump on St. Louis in the National Basketball Association playoff finals.

"Russell was the key—his defense and rebounding," Coach Red Auerbach of the defending world champions said after Sunday's 129-95 triumph over the Hawks.

The best-of-seven series resumes here Wednesday night. The 6-10 Russell grabbed 31 rebounds, blocked seven goal-bound shots and on two other occasions had goaltending called on him when he had diverted "sure" shots. He also had 15 points and assisted on four other goals.

"He was just fabulous," Auerbach added.

"This is still going to be a dog-fight," chimed in Frank Ramsey who was a Kentucky teammate of St. Louis' Cliff Hagan, the game's high scorer with 33 points.

"Wednesday is the important game. If St. Louis wins we're in trouble. If we win we have a good chance to win one of those televisied weekend games in St. Louis and wrap it up in five."

St. Louis coach Paul Seymour, not very optimistic at the Hawks' chances without injured pivotman Clyde Lovellette, heard today he might have the big guy for Saturday's third contest.

Experience Counts in the Masters

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Unless history is wrong, an inexperienced golfer hasn't much chance of winning the Masters Tournament. The only player who ever succeeded on his first attempt was Horton Smith, when he won the first Masters in 1934.

The massive and often deceptive 6,980-yard Augusta National course takes too much knowing for anyone to master it the first time out. Besides sheer power and sharp hitting, it calls for expertly placed drives, keen judgment on approaches and excellent putting.

But outside of defender Arnold Palmer, it's hard to see any of the past winners as likely contenders when the 25th Masters starts Thursday — and they're the men who should know the course best.

Going back a dozen years, only seven other winners are listed — Art Wall Jr., Doug Ford, Jack Burke, Cary Middlecoff, Sam Snead, Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret.

That seems to leave three possibilities. Can Palmer win a third Masters? Will some brash newcomer finally break through? Or will it be somebody like Ken Venturi, Gary Player, Bill Casper, Peter Thomson, Dow Finsterwald, or Jay Hebert, who has served his apprenticeship learning about Augusta National and now is ready to prove his knowledge and skill?

Almost extinct in the early 1930s, gray whales have been making a comeback since 1937 when international whaling agreements were signed. More than 4,000 are expected in the current migration from their Arctic feeding waters to breeding grounds off Baja California.

Spahn Stands Chance for 300 Victories

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The end of the rainbow is just 12 steps from Milwaukee mound marvel Warren Spahn, who can latch on to the pot of gold this season by becoming the first left-handed pitcher in National League history to win 300 games.

That's one of the few honors left for the tireless, ageless Spahn, a 20-game winner 11 times, the top active southpaw with 288 victories, and at 39 still the ace of the Braves' pitching staff.

Spahn has shown no signs of slowing down this spring while preparing for his 17th season in the big time. He has won four exhibitions without a loss—the latest a nine-inning, five-hit effort that stopped the Kansas City A's 9-2 Sunday.

Backed by Hank Aaron's three consecutive homers, Spahn faced only 30 men, striking out three and walking none as he tuned up for Milwaukee's opening day pitching assignment.

Outstanding pitching jobs also were turned in by New York's Whitey Ford and Pittsburgh's Joe Gibbon. Ford shut out Cincinnati 1-0 on a six-hit effort while Gibbon hurled four innings of perfect ball in the Pirates 4-1 win over St. Louis.

In other games, the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped Minnesota 7-3, Baltimore helmed the Chicago White Sox 11-5, San Francisco beat Cleveland 6-1, Philadelphia defeated Detroit 7-4, the Chicago Cubs edged Boston 5-3 and the Los Angeles Angels downed San Diego of the Pacific Coast League 7-6.

Moose Skowron's homer was all Ford needed and all he received as he became the first Yankee pitcher to go the distance, limiting the Reds to six singles. Skowron's blow was the first of three hits off Jay Hook, who worked the first seven innings for Cincinnati.

Gibbon, Jim Umbricht and Fred Green checked the Cardinals on five hits while the Pirates pounded route-going Bob Miller for 11 safeties—three by Dick Groat. Umbricht gave up the St. Louis run on Julian Javier's single and a double by Walt Moryn.

Although laced for 13 hits, Dodger lefty Sandy Koufax went the distance against the Twins and held them scoreless until Lenny Green hit a three-run homer in the ninth. Triples by Charlie Neal and Bob Aspromonte paced Los Angeles' 11-hit offensive.

Earl Robinson's two homers, the second a grand slam that capped a nine run uprising in the eighth inning, carried the Orioles to their win over the White Sox. Round trippers by Giants' rookies Bob Farley and Tom Haller along with six innings of scoreless pitching by Sam Jones beat the Indians.

Dick Ellsworth struck out eight in four innings of two-hit hurling while Ed Bouchee smacked a two-run homer for the Cubs against the Red Sox. Five hits by Tony Taylor and four by Pancho Herrera paced the Phils' attack after Tom Mahaffey was knocked out of the box when a liner by the Tigers' Bill Bruton nicked his elbow.

Julio Becquer stroked three hits and batted in four runs, including the clincher in the eighth, as the Angels came from behind to whip San Diego.

Kennedy said in a statement that he viewed the Soviet note as a "useful next step toward peaceful settlement of a potentially dangerous situation."

In Laos, fighting subsided Sunday as military sources reported no new major encounters with pro-Communist rebels. The government said Saturday the rebels were attacking three major points in eastern and southern Laos.

In Washington, officials cautioned that claims of the royal Laotian government about a large-scale rebel offensive should be considered with reservations.

Rusk and his top aides, among them Charles E. Bohlen, ranking Soviet expert, and Richard Usher, deputy director of the State Department's Southeast Asian Office, met for almost three hours Sunday.

Officials indicated that the United States would insist on an effective cease-fire before it entered any international conference to settle Laos' fate.

West Reply to Russia Is Being Formed

By ENDRE MARTON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Lord Home, the British foreign minister, arrives here tonight to start preliminary work with Secretary of State Dean Rusk on a Western reply to the Soviet Union's note on Laos.

They are expected to have a draft reply ready when Prime Minister Harold Macmillan reaches here late Tuesday afternoon for conferences with President Kennedy.

U.S. officials speculated it is unlikely the reply will be delayed until the end of Macmillan's visit. The U.S. and British evaluations of the Soviet note virtually are identical.

The Soviet Union, in its note to Britain last Saturday, agreed with the British proposal to hold a 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos, but remained vague on the timing of a cease-fire, which the British, backed by the United States, pro-

Three Stabbed by Ice Pick

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP) — Sheriff B. A. Courson of Hamburg said he still did not know details of the injury of a mother and her two young daughters at their home here Saturday.

Courson said Mrs. Howard Reeves, 35, and her daughters, Mary Lynn, 5, and Becky, 1, were found with stab wounds thought to have been inflicted with an ice pick.

He said they were taken to a Crossett clinic, then to an El Dorado hospital and were reported in satisfactory condition today.

Courson said he had not been able to talk with the victims yet. He said the father found the children and the mother in their house and took them to the clinic.

Butterfield, Hot Springs county, was named for D. A. Butterfield, who supervised the building of the pioneer "Diamond Jo" railroad line between Malvern and Hot Springs.

Calion, Union county, named for Union and Calion counties, is situated on a bend on the Osage river which marked a crossing for the Indian tribes, several of which joined there, and has a fairly good claim to being the site of Utigane, the Indian village at which DeSoto and his party built a stockade and passed the winter of 1541.

Oklahoma Win Arkansas Track Meet

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Despite a week of rain, snow and generally foul weather, the University of Arkansas held one of its most successful track meets in history Saturday. Missouri and Oklahoma led a field of 10 in the 10th annual Arkansas Relays.

Missouri broke two relay records and won a third relay, tying Oklahoma for most gold medals with four. Mike Lindsay, the Sooners' field man from London, England, was the only individual double winner. He set a shut put record and won the discus.

Arkansas performers had a good day, too. Jack Nelson of the Razorbacks set a two-mile mark of 9:17.2, the best he has ever done in that event. The old mark was 9:21.4. Gary McDonald of the Razorbacks set a 440-yard dash mark of 50.1 seconds. It was the first time the event had been run in the relays.

Ralph Brodie of the Razorbacks made a strong showing in the 120-yard high hurdles, twice clocking 14.2 but winding up second in the finals. Rex Stucker of Kansas State won it with a record 14 flat performance. The old mark was 14.4.

Lindsay was the individual sensation. His shot put of 50 feet 10 inches eclipsed the old mark

Bleachers Collapse at Easter Service

MEMPHIS (AP) — A section of bleachers collapsed here Sunday interrupting Easter sunrise services.

One woman was hospitalized and six others slightly injured. Mrs. Virgie Cooper, 68, was taken to a hospital where she was held overnight for observation.

Missouri set a 3:13.2 record in the mile relay and a 17:40.3 mark in the four mile relay. They won the 880 relay.

Seven records fell, but the one that was expected to be shattered stood up. J.D. Martin, Oklahoma's sensational pole vaulter, could reach only 15 feet 1.6 inches and the meet mark is 15-3/4. It is thought Martin has a chance for a world record.

Kansas State set a two mile relay record of 7:41.3 compared to the old mark of 7:48.7. Purdue notched a 10:06 record clocking in the distance medley relay, ousting the old mark of 10:25.

Despite the foul weather, the track was in good shape and the field men had an easy time of it. Martin of Oklahoma said the pole vault runway wasn't quite long enough for him, and he started from several feet back in the mud. But he said that didn't hurt his performance

She suffered multiple bruises and an ankle injury.

The Red Cross treated six persons for cuts and bruised legs. The services resumed about a half hour after the collapse.

Most of the 250 seated on the four-row bleachers managed to get clear before the stands completely collapsed.

"It could have been worse," J. C. Boyce, 43 said. "Women were screaming and hats were flying everywhere. It look to me as though the stands collapsed because they were set up on soggy ground."

Chilton Young, Red Cross representative, said most of the injuries were caused when people caught their legs under the planks.
